

Andrew Yang Releases 8 Years Of Tax Returns

huffpost.com/entry/andrew-yang-releases-8-years-tax-returns_n_5ddf396ee4b00149f7295a09

Andrew Yang Releases 8 Years Of Tax Returns

Entrepreneur Andrew Yang released eight years of his tax returns on Wednesday, joining many of his fellow Democratic presidential candidates in disclosing information about their finances and wealth.

Yang released the 2011 to 2018 tax returns on his website. They cover the period after he created his business Venture for America, a program that helps recent college graduates get work experience at startups by offering two-year fellowships. The returns don't include the years when Yang worked at several startups himself or when he worked and eventually led the tutoring company Manhattan Prep before selling it to Kaplan.

Yang's campaign told The Hill on Wednesday that the businessman decided to release his tax returns from 2011 because creating Venture for America was "a good milestone in his timeline." Yang also married Evelyn Lu in 2011, with whom he jointly filed the tax returns.

"Andrew Yang's tax returns show what America has come to know about him," Yang spokesperson S.Y. Lu told The Hill. He's an entrepreneur at heart while trying to balance the financial interests of his

<https://www.yang2020.com/tax-returns/>